Disability RMS to Present at 2009 Midwest Claim Conference

Company Will Review New Tools Designed to Enhance Claim Investigations

WESTBROOK, Maine — April 21, 2009 — Disability RMS, the nation's leading provider of turnkey disability risk management products and services, today announced that Tracey G. Zinck will present at the 2009 Midwest Claim Conference set for May 6-8 in Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. Zinck, assistant vice president of claims, will discuss the innovative options currently available to expedite and enhance claim investigations. The session will also cover legal concerns associated with overuse/misuse of data and potential drawbacks of utilization without careful oversight. Zinck's session, titled "Information Technology: New Tools of the Trade Can Enhance Your Claim Investigation," will be held on May 7 (11:45 a.m. – 12:45 p.m.) at the Grand Geneva Resort and Spa.

"Technology, when utilized effectively, can help to ensure thorough, fair, and well reasoned claim determinations," said Zinck.

With nearly 20 years experience in health and group disability insurance, Zinck is responsible for the strategic and operational leadership of the Disability RMS claims organization. She earned her bachelor's degree, magna cum laude, from Quinnipiac College and holds a juris doctor degree from the University of Bridgeport School of Law.

Established in 1969, the Midwest Claim Conference is sponsored by the Chicago Claim Association. For more information, visit the Chicago Claim Association at www.chicagoclaimassoc.org.
